

Developmental Relationships Provides:

Roots for thriving & resilience

Opportunities to discover who they are

Engage/ Contribute

Strong developmental relationships help to mold and shape who we become.

Developmental Relationships are close connections where young people discover who they are while learning how to engage/contribute to the world around them.

Clark County Juvenile Court

500 W 11th Street PO Box

5000 Vancouver, WA

98666-5000

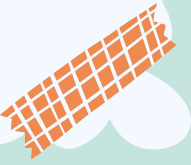

564.397.2201

www.clark.wa.gov/juvenile

Youth Engagement Program

Clark County
Juvenile Court

Youth Engagement Program

6 C's

MISSION:

Connecting youth to a caring community to build competencies, confidence, and character.

Connection

Confidence

Character

Competence

Contribution

Caring

Positive Youth Development

Encourages

Family Involvement

1

Strengthens the family unit
Promotes family participation
Family unit is influential

Social Emotional Learning

2

Youth gain skills
Identify feelings
Understand/ communicate with others
Build strong relationships
Make good/ empathetic decisions

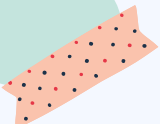

3

Service Learning

Practice "learning by doing"
Showcase their talents
Promotes positive youth development

Positive Youth Development:

Reinforces that our youth of today can succeed and what may seem impossible is actually possible by promoting:

Social Emotional
Positive Identity
Self-Efficacy
Resiliency
Moral competence

