If a candidate does not provide a campaign mailing address, the mailing address in their voter registration record will be published online in the list of candidates who have filed.

Make certain that phone numbers, email addresses and website addresses are accurate, functional, and not confidential or private. The process is open to the public and begins shortly after 5 pm, after the candidate filing forms have been processed.

RCW 29A.36.170

For the general election, the candidate with the most votes in the primary will be listed first on the ballot and in the Local Voters' Pamphlet. If no primary is held for an office, candidates will appear on the general election ballot in lot draw order.

Submit Local Voters' Pamphlet Information*
RCW 29A.32.125
RCW 29A.32.230
WAC 434-381-120

If Clark County is not the filing officer in a multi-county race, the candidate's voters' pamphlet submissions must adhere to the administrative rules of the county that is the filing officer.

Clark County publishes an official Local Voters' Pamphlet for the primary and general election. It is available in printed, electronic and audio formats. The electronic and audio versions are published at clarkvotes.org.

The deadline to submit Local Voters' Pamphlet information is 4 pm Tuesday, May 20, 2025.

Offices that file with the state must submit voters' pamphlet information to the state within their deadline.

The Local Voters' Pamphlet provides an opportunity for every candidate whose name will appear on a ballot to have their biographical information, candidate statement, contact information and photo published.

After a candidate's submitted declaration of candidacy is approved, they will receive an email with a link to submit the information listed above for publication in the Local Voters' Pamphlet. A candidate may also submit their information by email to elections@clark.wa.gov or in person at 1408 Franklin Street, Vancouver. The Elections Office cannot accept information submitted on a flash drive.

To meet the deadline, candidates should submit their information as soon as possible after they file for office. Local Voters' Pamphlet submissions are not disclosable until the submission deadline has passed.

Technical difficulties will not excuse candidates from meeting the deadline. Any candidate who experiences technical problems while submitting their information online should call the Elections Office immediately at (564) 397-2345.

Once submitted, all biographical information, statements, photos and contact information are final. Submissions cannot be revised by the candidate.

Candidates may NOT submit a new statement for the general election Voters' Pamphlet. The information submitted for the primary pamphlet will also be used for the general election pamphlet.

Exception: An unopposed candidate on the primary ballot may submit a revised statement only when a write-in candidate for the same position files a declaration of candidacy. The revised statement must be received no later than the Tuesday following the primary election.

Candidates Who Cannot Pay the Filing Fee
RCW 29A.24.091,
RCW 29A.24.101,
RCW 29A.24.111,
WAC 434-215-025

Candidates or candidate committees who cannot pay the filing fee may submit a filing fee petition. The petition must be presented with the Declaration of Candidacy form at the time of filing. The filing fee petition is available on the Elections Office website at clarkvotes.org. It must contain one valid signature for each dollar of the filing fee. For example, if the filing fee for the office is $200.00, the petition must contain 200 valid signatures. A signature is valid if the signer is a registered voter who resides in the district/jurisdiction of the office the candidate is seeking. It is recommended that a candidate gathers 25 percent more signatures than necessary as it is not uncommon for signatures to be invalid because they are duplicates or the signer is not a registered voter. All signatures must be submitted at the same time. No signatures may be submitted after 5 pm Friday, May 9, 2025. The filing fee must be either paid in full or the sufficient number of valid signatures must be provided.

Write-In Candidates
RCW 29A.24.311,
RCW 29A.24.320,
RCW 29A.60.021
WAC 434-215-015
WAC 434-215-180
WAC 434-381-120

Write-in candidates must file a write-in declaration to have votes tallied for a race. The write-in declaration must be filed by 8:00 pm on Election Day.

If the write-in declaration is filed 18 days prior to an election, no filing fee is required. Write-in candidates that file 18 days or less before an election must pay a filing fee. For offices with a fixed annual salary of more than $1,000, the filing fee is 1% of the annual salary. For offices with a fixed annual salary of $1,000 or less, the filing fee is $25. Candidates for offices without a fixed annual salary must also pay the $25 filing fee, including those paid on per diem or per meeting basis.

Write-in candidates may submit a filing fee petition in lieu of a filing fee.

No candidate may file as a write-in candidate:

- For the general election, if the candidate lost the primary, either as a candidate or as a declared write-in candidate.
- If a candidate has filed a write-in declaration for another office.
- If the candidate already appears on the ballot for another office, with the exception of the offices of Precinct Committee Officer, Freeholder or Charter Review Commissioner.

Write-in candidates will not be included in any voters' pamphlet unless that candidate qualifies to have his or her name printed on the general election ballot. A declared primary election write-in candidate may submit a statement and photograph to the secretary of state no later than the Tuesday following the primary election.

An unopposed candidate on the primary ballot may submit a revised statement only when a write-in candidate for the same position files a declaration of candidacy. The revised statement must be received no later than the Tuesday following the primary election.

Vacancy in Office
RCW 29A.24.171
WAC 434-215-005

When an incumbent resigns, passes away, or is disqualified mid-term, and candidate filings have not been held for the office, one of the following occurs:

- If the Elections Office is notified of a vacancy before the first day of regular candidate filing for that office, the office will be included in the regular filing.
- If the Elections Office is notified of a vacancy during candidate filing the office will be included in the regular filing if the notice is received on or before the completion of the 2nd day of candidate filing, if the notification is received on or after the 3rd day of candidate filing, a special three-day filing period will be opened. The Elections Office will provide notice of the special three-day filing period by notifying the media.
- If the vacancy in office occurs on or after the first day of regular candidate filing, no election is held for that office until the next general election that the office is allowed by law to have an election. The jurisdiction will fill the vacant position with an appointment until the next election for that office.

Voids in Candidacy
RCW 29A.24.131,
RCW 29A.24.141,
RCW 29A.24.181

A void in candidacy occurs if, after the regular filing week but prior to the day of the primary:

- No candidate has filed for an office,
- All candidates who have filed have withdrawn, or
- All candidates who have filed have passed away or have been disqualified.

There is no void in candidacy as long as there is at least one viable candidate for an office.

If a void in candidacy for an office exists, a special three-day filing period will be opened. The Elections Office will provide notice of the special three-day filing period by notifying the media. There is no withdrawal period when filing for office during the special three-day filing period.

If a void in candidacy is filled as a result of the special three-day filing period, no primary will be held. All candidates who file during the special filing period will appear on the general election ballot.

Lapsed Elections
RCW 29A.24.191,
RCW 29A.24.201

If no candidate files for an office during the regular filing period and subsequent special three-day filing period, an election for that office will not be held until the next election for that office.

If no candidate files for any city, town or district position during the regular filing period and subsequent special three-day filing period, the incumbent continues to serve until a successor is elected at the next election when such positions are voted upon.

Guidelines for Primary

Partisan Offices RCW 29A.52.112, WAC 434-215-120, WAC 434-230-045, WAC 434-230-055, Clark County Home Rule Charter Section 6.2

A partisan office is an office for which a candidate may choose to indicate a political party preference or no party preference on his or her Declaration of Candidacy form. Federal, state, legislative and precinct committee officer positions are partisan offices.

A primary will be held for each open partisan office, regardless of the number of candidates filing, with the exception of an unexpired term for which only one candidate files a Declaration of Candidacy.

Each candidate for partisan office may state a political party that they prefer. A candidate's preference does not imply that the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party, or that the party approves of or associates with that candidate. Changes to party preferences will not be accepted after the deadline for withdrawal of candidacy.

County offices are nonpartisan but will appear on the primary ballot regardless of the number of candidates filing for the office, per Clark County's Home Rule Charter.

The name of a candidate for a county council position will appear only on the ballot for their council district.

On the primary ballot, candidates shall be listed in the order determined by the lot drawing.

The two candidates who receive the greatest number of votes in the primary will advance to the general election regardless of their party preferences. The candidate who received the most votes in the primary will appear first on the general election ballot.

Nonpartisan Offices RCW 29A.52.220, RCW 29A.52.231, RCW 35.61.050, RCW 36.69.090, Clark County Home Rule Charter Section 6.2

A nonpartisan office is an office for which candidates do not indicate a party preference. All judicial, county, city, town, school and special purpose district offices are nonpartisan offices.

A primary will be held if three or more candidates file for a nonpartisan office. The two candidates with the most votes continue to the general election. The candidate who received the most votes in the primary will appear first on the ballot in the general election.

County offices are nonpartisan but will appear on the primary ballot regardless of the number of candidates filing for the office, per Clark County's Home Rule Charter.

A primary will not be held for charter review commissioners, park and recreation district positions or cemetery district positions. All candidates will advance directly to the general election and will appear on the ballot in lot draw order.

Charter Review
Commissioners
(Every 5 years – Next Election in 2025)

Election and Period of Office

Five years after adoption of the charter and at every five years thereafter, the Council shall cause an election of a charter review commission.

The commission shall consist of 15 persons, elected on a nonpartisan basis; three will be from each council district. Candidates must file during the regular candidate filing period and pay a $25 filing fee. No primary will be held for this election. The election shall be held at the November general election.

The member receiving the greatest number of votes shall convene the commission. The term of office for persons elected to the commission shall be two years or until the work of the commission concludes, whichever occurs sooner.

Judicial Offices

Judicial candidates only appear on the primary ballot when three or more candidates file for the office. The candidates’ names appear on the ballot in lot draw order.

See the chart below for more judicial office information.

Precinct Committee
Officers
(Even-Numbered Years Only)

Anyone who is a registered voter and a member of a major political party may become a candidate for Precinct Committee Officer (PCO). A candidate may file a Declaration of Candidacy Precinct Committee Officer form in person, by mail or online. Since voters do not register by political party in Washington, a candidate declares himself or herself to be a member of a political party at the time of filing.

PCOs will be elected during the primary.

If only one person files for office, they are deemed elected. Only PCO races with two or more candidates will appear on the ballot and write-in candidates are not allowed. Order will be determined by lot drawing with Democratic PCOs listed first on ballot. State law requires the major political party that received the highest number of votes from the electors of this state for the office of President of the United States at the last presidential election to be listed first. If no one files for office, the position is filled by the chairperson of the County Central Committee of the appropriate political party.

PCOs are not included in the Local Voters' Pamphlet.

Term of Office and Vacancies

The term of office is two years. Should a vacancy occur in the office (caused by death, disqualification, resignation or failure to elect), the chairperson of the County Central Committee fills the vacancy by appointment.

Duties of a PCO

Each officer is a member of the County Central Committee. The committee has the authority to nominate candidates or fill vacancies for state, legislative or county offices. The committee may also elect members to the State Central Committee. PCOs participate in party activities and represent the party.

Guidelines for General Election

Partisan Offices

On general election ballots, the name of the candidate who received the greatest number of votes for the position in the primary will be listed first, followed by the name of the candidate who received the next greatest number of votes.

A candidate for partisan office may state the political party that they prefer. A candidate's party preference does not mean that the candidate is endorsed by the party. Changes to party preferences will not be accepted after the deadline for withdrawal of candidacy.

Nonpartisan/Judicial Offices RCW 29A.36.170

On general election ballots, the name of the candidate who received the greatest number of votes for the position in the primary will be listed first, followed by the name of the candidate who received the next greatest number of votes. If a primary was not required for a nonpartisan office, the candidates' names will appear in lot draw order.

Prohibited Activities

Acts Prohibited in the Vicinity of a Voting Center or a Ballot Deposit Site WAC 434-250-100, RCW 29A.84.510, RCW 29A.84.530, RCW 29A.84.540

During the voting period, no person may, within a voting center:

- Suggest, persuade, or attempt to suggest or persuade any voter to vote for or against any candidate or ballot measure.
- Circulate cards or handbills of any kind.
- Solicit signatures for any kind of petition.
- Engage in any practice which interferes with the freedom of voters to exercise their right to vote or disrupts administration of the voting center.

No person may:

- Interfere with a voter attempting to vote at a voting center or a ballot deposit site.
- Without lawful authority, remove any ballot from a voting center or a ballot deposit site.
- Within 25 feet of a ballot drop box not located within a voting center, electioneer, circulate campaign material, solicit petition signatures, or interfere or impede the voting process.

Mandatory/Automatic Recounts RCW 29A.64

An automatic machine recount will be conducted if the difference in the number of votes cast for the apparent winner and the closest apparently defeated opponent is less than 2,000 votes and also less than one-half of one percent of the total number of votes cast for both candidates. The recount is applicable only to the candidate apparently nominated or elected to office and the closest apparently defeated opponent. The automatic recount will tally only votes for the position in question and will be conducted without charge to any candidate.

For statewide elections, if the difference in the number of votes cast for the apparent winner and the closest apparently defeated opponent is less than 1,000 votes and also less than one-quarter of one percent of the total number of votes cast for both candidates, the votes shall be recounted manually.

For all other elections, if the difference in the number of votes cast for the apparent winner and the closest apparently defeated opponent is less than 150 votes and also less than one-quarter of one percent of the total number of votes cast for both candidates, the votes shall be recounted manually. An alternative counting method may be used if both candidates agree to it in writing and if the procedure is suited to the balloting system that was used for casting the votes for the office.

If a mandatory recount is required for a candidate in a jurisdiction, the cost of the recount is billed as a direct cost to the jurisdiction.

Local Measure, Question or Issue

Automatic recounts do not apply to non-statewide ballot measures, such as levies, bonds, and other questions or issues.

Requests for Recounts

All requests for recounts must be submitted no later than two business days after the certification of the election. A deposit equal to 15 cents (machine recount) or 25 cents (manual recount) per ballot by certified check or cash is required. The final cost of the recount will be determined by the canvassing board and may be less or more than the deposit.

At any time before the ballots from all the precincts listed in the application for the recount have been recounted, the applicant may file with the board a written request to stop the recount.
