

COUNTY MANAGER SEEKS VOLUNTEER FOR OPEN SEAT ON ARTS COMMISSION

News Release from Clark Co. WA Communications

Posted on FlashAlert; March 9rd 2868 08:69.PM

Vancouver, Wash. -- Clark County is accepting applications to fill an open position on the Clark County Arts Commission.

The position is for a representative of the unincorporated county and does not live within any city limits. The term begins April 1, 2025, and ends March 31, 2027.

The Arts Commission is made up of 11 volunteers. Each participating city appoints one member, and the county manager appoints three members representing the arts, arts education and business communities. The commission meets at 5:30 pm on the first Tuesday of each month.

The commission advises and collaborates with the county council and city councils and reports accomplishments to the community. Members advocate for the arts in the community, at public hearings, budget hearings and other public forums.

Anyone wishing to apply should submit a letter and résumé to Michelle Pfenning, County Manager's Office, PO Box 5000, Vancouver, WA 98666-5000. Applications also can be emailed to michelle.pfenning@clark.wa.gov.

Application deadline is 5 pm, Monday, March 31, 2025.
